

To develop Danang City to be a large national urban area and the major socio-economic center of Central Vietnam with the role of:

- A service hub;
- The seaport city, the important domestic and international transportation and transit hub;
- The post - telecommunication and finance - banking center;
- One of the centers of culture and sports, education and training, science and high technology in Central Vietnam;

Danang Economic Structure by 2020

Source: The masterplan of socio-economic development of Danang