

On September 10, the Department of Industry and Trade said that in order to support and accompany small and medium enterprises in applying technology solutions in business, implementing digital transformation, enhancing management capabilities and increasing efficiency, the Department of Industry and Trade will select 10 from 50 small and medium enterprises to participate in the Newbiz project - supporting 500,000 businesses to transform digitally and develop sustainable e-commerce.

This is a project implemented by the Vietnam E-commerce Association (VECOM), IM Group Online Business Development Center and TIKI E-Commerce Platform.

Specific support contents include: 1 year free use of website with integrated online sales systems, online payment, ITOP online sales management, support to build infrastructure systems including websites, trading platforms free e-commerce, put products on the TIKI e-commerce platform for free ...

Enterprises and business in the city wishing to participate, please register at the Department of Industry and Trade (Floor 19, City Administration Center, 24 Tran Phu, Hai Chau District, Da Nang City ) until September 25, 2020.

Source: baodanang.vn / translated by Hien Pham